CODE OF CONDUCT

As we welcome your children into our summer camps, we expect a certain level of behavior that will be enforced and encouraged. The expectation is that campers will behave appropriately with all members of the day camp, and respect the counselors and camp equipment.

Our staff will use a positive approach to discipline and will seek parental support to resolve behavior issues that are disruptive to the camp. Campers who continue to be disruptive after consultation may be dismissed from the program. If you feel it will be beneficial to speak with the Recreation Director, please contact Michele Geremia at 401-247-1900 x9.

We will review the Code of Conduct with your child on the first day of camp so he/she fully understands our expectation. By providing you with a copy, we can work together to create a respectful atmosphere, which will lead to both a positive and enjoyable camping experience for all.

1. Show respect to all campers and staff, and treat them, as you would like to be treated.
2. Come to camp each day prepared to cooperate with your counselor and instructor by taking part in activities that have been selected for that day.
3. Respect the rights of other campers and treat each other with courtesy, consideration and respect.
4. Communicate in an appropriate manner. Inappropriate language, harsh words or gestures are not part of our camp experience.
5. Conduct yourself responsibly by understanding that horseplay, teasing or picking on any individual or bullying will not be tolerated.
6. Behaviors such as hitting, pushing, kicking, fighting or name-calling is unacceptable.
7. Use program equipment, supplies and facilities, appropriately. Return any equipment or material to its proper place after use.
8. Each person is responsible for his/her own behavior and proper behavior leads to a great summer of fun.
